June 13. 1946

Dear Sir

Will you give Mrs Dille & myself the pleasure of your company at dinner on Thursday the 15th at 8.00 or thereabouts precisely.

I regret that it has not been in the power of either my father or myself to see you before, but our engagements for the last 12 months have been of such a your ending nature as not to have left us our moment to ourselves. I have arranged with my father that he will have the pleasure of meeting you on the 19th here, if as I hope, you may be disengaged yourself
